January 2002: De La Salle University, Manila, hosted a "Conference on AUN Inter-Library Online" to strengthen information networking among AUN Member Universities as well as to provide support of academic resources to the development of a virtual university. The Conference explored the best way for the establishment of AUN Inter-Library Online.

January 2003: A resolution to set up an AUNILO Working Committee was adopted and submitted to the AUN Board of Trustees.

April 2004: The AUNILO Working Committee held the 1st meeting hosted by the NTU Library.

2004 – 2008: Universiti Sains Malaysia Library shall serve as the AUNILO Secretariat, while Universiti Malaya Library shall host the AUNILO Portal (<http://aunilo.org>).

2008 – 2013: Due to its excellent commitment USM Library's appointment as AUNILO Secretariat has been extended until 2013.

The AUNILO Committee meets at least once a year to plan, prepare and assess activities as well as present Institutional / Country reports.

Objectives of AUNILO Working Committee

- To promote competent human resource development in ASEAN by the strong support of wider access to academic source supplies shared by all ASEAN countries.
- To strengthen existing linkages and support further cooperation among higher education institutions in ASEAN countries through the sharing of academic resources.
- To provide another channel of information sharing among academic communities in ASEAN, utilizing technological advancement and existing resources in the AUN Member Universities.
