I. For every blank, choose and circle the best answer.

A. My parents 1 always emphasized 2 importance of getting a good education. Since the day I 3 school they have always told me to study hard. They have always hoped that one day I would 4 in getting 5 college or university. It was not until quite recently, however, that I wanted to further my studies. As 6 teenager, I always avoided discussing the subject 7 my education with my parents. In a way I regret not talking to them about it because I 8 now that they would have understood my misgivings 9 the matter. Anyway, that 10 all in the past now. There 11 three main reasons why I wish to continue my studies 12 university.

Firstly, I believe that a university education 13 enable me to get a good job later on. I am 14 that with a good qualification I can 15 a far greater choice of career and anticipate finding a really satisfying and well-paid job.

Secondly, I feel that spending three more years studying without the pressure of having to earn a living, will 16 me peace of mind. I would like to study a subject in depth and become knowledgeable in my given field. Also life at college 17 us to develop as individuals since there are many social and sporting activities we can get involved in.

Finally, when I complete the degree 18 able to start repaying the tremendous debt I owe my parents. They have always struggled to bring me 19 well and often had to put themselves in second place. When I get my degree it will make 20 realize that I too have struggled a little in life to please them. So, here I am. I have made my decision and I am going all out to achieve my goals. Wish me luck!

B. My father was driving me home 21 the shops the other day. There was not 22 traffic on the road except for a number of motorbikes a few metres behind us. Suddenly the biggest of the bikes accelerated and tried to get past us. The rider appeared to have 23 control of his bike and 24 into the back of 25 car. My father immediately stopped and parked behind a stationery bus because we were worried that the rider might be seriously injured or even 26. We hurried 27 to the man who lay motionless 28 the road. An ambulance quickly 29 and took 30 to the nearby hospital. A policeman asked to 31 my father's driving licence and told us to go to 32 police station to make 33 report.

When he went to make the report, he had to wait for quite a while. There was a long queue because a lady was rather slow 34 writing her report. I 35 any practice in this sort of thing. ' 36 someone help 37 , please?' My father then helped her with her report since he 38 used to report writing in 39 job.

Then the police officer told my father that the motorbike rider 40 not seriously injured and that he 41 charged with dangerous driving and theft. He had apparently stolen the motorbike and was being chased 42 the other riders whose friend's bike he 43 stolen. He was already in police custody and would probably 44 some time in prison 45 his crimes.
