2. Fantasy as a critical term, according to Rosemary Jackson (1991), refers to "any literature which doesn't give priority to realistic representation". Discuss the elements of fantasy in JRR Tolkien's novel The Hobbit.

[100 marks]

3. The Grimm Brothers' The Sleeping Beauty has been described by feminists as misogynistic in its treatment of the female characters. Discuss gender biasness that can be found in the text.

[100 marks]

4. Look at the poem below and answer the following questions:

- [a] What age group would you use this poem for? Explain why.
- [b] Discuss some of the literary elements that you can focus on when using the poem below to teach your students. Explain how they can be used effectively in your classroom.

RIVER, RIVER

RIVER, river, running through the land,
Are you a traveller over foreign sand?
Are you a carrier from town to town,
River, river, as you hurry down?

Yes, I'm a carrier from town to town:
Here are ships with white sails, there are boats with brown,
What shall they bring you, what will you send?
I'll be your carrier to the land's end.
